Message from the editor

Dear readers,

On behalf of the editorial board, I am pleased to present the Pharmaceutical Journal of Sri Lanka (PJSL) for year 2015. This volume of the PJSL is rich with four full research papers in areas of Pharmacy practice and Pharmaceutical sciences and two review articles. Supplement to the journal contains abstracts of oral and poster presentations of Scientific Sessions 2015 of the Pharmaceutical Society of Sri Lanka. The journal has a wide scope and publish all areas of Pharmacy research; pharmaceutics, biopharmaceutics, pharmaceutical chemistry, pharmacognosy, pharmacology, pharmaceutical analysis, pharmacy practice, clinical pharmacy, community pharmacy and hospital pharmacy. We would like to invite the readers to submit original research as well as reviews, short communications, letters to editor, technical notes and opinions for publications in future volumes. Your feedback is also encouraged. I would like to thank the State Pharmaceutical Cooperation for sponsoring this publication and to all authors for submitting their valuable research to PJSL.
